

Recommended option while creating the Quiz

We have observed that the students are trying to click on the quiz option, if visible.

You are requested to please hide the quiz by using the eye option present in front of the quiz and unhide the quiz just before starting the quiz. This will make sure that the students have no access to any part of the quiz even if some recommended settings are not selected.
