1	Section 3(1)(c) of these Regulations states that: 3. (1)Every HEI shall,- . . . (c) organise training programmes or as the case may be, workshops for the officers, functionaries, faculty and students, as indicated in the SAKSHAM Report (Measures for Ensuring the Safety of Women and Programmes for Gender Sensitization on Campuses) of the Commission, to sensitize them and ensure knowledge and awareness of the rights, entitlements and responsibilities enshrined in the Act and under these regulations; ('HEI' stands for Higher Educational Institution.) Kindly provide the total number of such training programs and workshops conducted by the institute in the calendar years 2018-2022. Please include the dates of the programs and workshops, and the names of the trainers/speakers.	Attached as Annexure A

2	Section 3(1)(q) of these Regulations reads: 3. (1)Every HEI shall, - . . . (q) prepare an annual status report with details on the number of cases filed and their disposal and submit the same to the Commission. . . . Kindly inform whether the annual status reports for each of the years in the period 2018–2021 have been submitted by the institute to UGC, and further provide the dates of such submissions (for each year separately).
3	Section 3.2(4) of the Regulations reads: 3.2(4) Since research students and doctoral candidates are particularly vulnerable the HEIs must ensure that the guidelines for ethics for Research Supervision are put in place. Kindly inform whether such guidelines for ethical research supervision have been framed and notified under the aforesaid section of the Regulations. If yes, please provide a .pdf copy of the same. Please note that in this point, I am not referring to the guidelines for research integrity and prevention of plagiarism.	There was no specific guidelines concerning ethical research supervision. Being IIT the faculty strictly follow the procedure of ethical research.
4.	Section 3.2 (5) of the Regulations states: All HEIs must conduct a regular and half yearly review of the efficacy and implementation of their anti-sexual harassment policy. Kindly (a) inform the number of such reviews undertaken by the institute in the years 2018–2022, and (b) provide a copy of the reports and findings of such reviews.
5.	Section 4(1)(c) of the Regulations reads: 4. Grievance redressal mechanism.—(1) Every Executive Authority shall constitute an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) with an inbuilt mechanism for gender sensitization against sexual harassment. The ICC shall have the following composition:- . . . (c) Three students, if the matter involves students, who shall be enrolled at the undergraduate, master's, and research scholar levels respectively, elected through transparent democratic procedure; . . . Kindly (i) inform whether elections were held for appointing the student members in the ICC, and (ii) if elections were not held, kindly inform the details of the process followed for choosing the ICC student members.
