The list of shortlisted applicants uploaded on the institute website was not final. The last page of the uploaded document had clearly mentioned that the applicant can contact us if they find any discrepancy in the uploaded document. Based on the emails that were received, some more applicants were shortlisted since they were satisfying the shortlisting criteria. The reason for them satisfying the criteria was due to the conversion of CGPA to percentage, for which they provided a certificate from their institute after knowing the shortlisting criteria from the institute website. Ranjana Roy Choudhury was shortlisted after receiving the CGPA to percentage conversion certificate from her institute. Aditi Priya was shortlisted based on her external fellowship (UGC-NET JRF). She was shortlisted after producing the NET-JRF certificate but only under the category of externally funded PhD. Further, her final selection is also not under the institute funded category.

1.	IIT Ropar declared the result of PhD before the notice came for the special drive for J&k candidates for phd admission. However one candidate namely Hafsa nazir was selected and the admission process ended before the declaration of the result of special drive for J&k candidates. After declaration of result of special drive it was seen that the same candidate was also selected in the special drive. Therefore, also there was not any waiting list provided by the institute. Kindly explain the matter.	Hafsa Nazir, the candidate mentioned in the RTI request has appeared in the written test/interview for PhD admission (regular) in the Department of Civil Engineering. She was selected under Inspire Fellowship and had completed her registration process on 31.12.2019. Further, the candidate had appeared in the PhD admission test for the J&K special drive on 30.12.2019 and 31.12.2019. As of now she is continuing on her regular admission under Inspire Fellowship.

1.	I am Prastheesh Ramakrishnan Nair, from Kerala, applied for staff nurse post in IIT Ropar and got hall ticket today (04/11/2019). As I got the information by that letter that the reporting date was on 31/10/2019 at 09:00 hours. I was eagerly waiting for the exam since many months. When I tracked the letter with Indian Post Track ID (RP865481731IN). It comes to know that, it had been sent on 28/10/2018. It's unable to get the letter within short period of time and come to report to your office. I contacted Director and Registrar office about the same and send mail to them. I want an answer that who is responsible for this delay, what action taken against that person and is there any possibility for me to attend exam expecting reply ASAP.	No information Asked.
